Challenge

Setting New Standards for Ergonomics and Safety

With the renovation of the Aigle Town Hall, the police station faced the challenge of not only renewing its premises but also significantly improving ergonomics and workplace safety.

Solution

Efficiency and Well-Being in Focus

The solution lay in a clear vision: maximizing space utilization, optimizing office areas, and improving working conditions to meet the increased demands of the police team.

After initial self-initiative, the Aigle police station sought support from Schäfer Shop. The close collaboration enabled the realization of Mr. Rizet's ideas and effectively met the space requirements.
